Dear Sir Madam,

I have been in the telecom industry for over 20 years and have participated in countless engagements internationally and can tell you that if we continue the current restrictive Canada Only model we as Canadian tax payers and consumers will continue to pay much higher rates than those of our neighbors to the south, EU and more so developing countries.

Our current model provides our national carriers the ability to extract unfair levies for services rendered far outstripping the actual cost of delivering those services.

Let the competition in.... Please
