ADVANCED PUBLICATION NOTICE - SMSE-014-14

TO: Certification Bodies recognized by Industry Canada

RE: New RSS-216 Issue 1

The purpose of this notice is to announce that Industry Canada will publish the following standard on September 4, 2014:

Radio Standards Specification RSS-216, Issue 1, Wireless Power Transfer Devices (Wireless Chargers), which sets out the minimum requirements for wireless power transfer devices with power management and/or control capabilities.

Important information

This standard will come into force as of September 4, 2014. Applicants for equipment certification including Certification Bodies must ensure compliance with the new issue of this standard.

Certification Bodies have one year from the date of publication to amend their recognized scope of accreditation to reflect the new issue of these standards in accordance with Industry Canada procedures for conformity assessment bodies.
